

MUSIC PRACTITIONERS

EXAM BOARD: AQA

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

Directly influence the future of the Music Industry! Focusing on the acquisition of practical skills and knowledge applicable to the sector, RSL's Music Practitioners Qualifications at Levels 3 offers aspiring producers, performers, songwriters and entrepreneurs the opportunity to surround themselves in music while gaining a fully regulated and recognised qualification in the process.

There are two compulsory units:

Rehearsal Skills and Live Performance (180 GLH)
(Externally assessed core unit)

Planning a Career in Music (90 GLH) (Internally assessed core unit)

There are many optional units that we could take, depending on the cohort. We adapt to suit the needs of the learners and their strengths as musicians. Here are some examples of the exciting optional units that can be delivered. There is definitely something for all musical interests.

These include:	Composing Music (Individual)
Recorded Performance	Composing Music (Collaboration)
Music Performance to Camera	Music Sequencing and Production
Lead Performer	Music Management
Session Musician
Music Improvisation
Auditioning for Music

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

All units will be assessed as outlined above. There are no exams on this course.

MINIMUM GCSE REQUIREMENTS

GCSE Music grade 4 and above or Grade 5 ABRSM or Rock School performing standard.

POSSIBLE PROGRESSION PATHWAYS

This is a level 3 qualification that is the equivalent of 1.5 A levels. It can be used for further study at university or for direct entry into the music industry.
